

Important! Change in Location

presents a FREE conference on

Alternative Strategies for Alcoholism Treatment

The conference will examine the role and ethical implications of comprehensive treatment for alcoholism, including the ethical challenges of different treatment strategies and the latest empirical research and clinical evidence. Participants include a panel of experts from the local alcohol treatment community.

Featuring:

David F. Musto, M.D.
Professor, Child Psychiatry &
History of Medicine
School of Medicine
Yale University

Charles P. O'Brien, M.D., Ph.D.
Professor, Department of Psychiatry
School of Medicine
University of Pennsylvania

Arthur L. Caplan, Ph.D.
Emanuel and Robert Hart Professor of Bioethics
Chair, Department of Medical Ethics
Director, Center for Bioethics
University of Pennsylvania

Kathleen M. Carroll, Ph.D.
Professor of Psychiatry
School of Medicine
Yale University

Jon M. Huntsman Hall, Room G06
Ambani Auditorium

University of Pennsylvania
The Wharton School
3730 Walnut Street

Wednesday, May 21st, 2008
8:30am - 3:00pm

RSVP by Noon May 16, 2008
spaebh@mail.med.upenn.edu

Lunch will be provided with pre-registration only

Professionals in the alcohol dependency treatment community are encouraged to attend
Social Work Continuing Education Units are available to participants

*The conference is organized by the ScattergoodEthics program in cooperation with the Center for Studies of Addiction, University of Pennsylvania
This program is co-sponsored by the University of Pennsylvania School of Social Policy & Practice Funded through an educational grant from Alkermes, Inc.*

ScattergoodEthics.org

Enriching the ethics of behavioral health theory, policy and practice

